Congress in Serbia

This is an invitation for you to discover a beautiful country that will greet you warmly. You will meet authentic wine-makers who will share their love for their wines with you, and who will help you to get to know the local sorts which you are most likely unfamiliar with.

Come to explore the cultural wealth of national and gastronomical tradition in a gracious atmosphere.

I was enchanted by the country, its people and their vineyards. If you can spare a few extra days, do not hesitate to extend your stay and continue the journey through Serbia after the Congress.

My special thanks go to Karl Reser who brought me to Serbia, as well as Aleksandar Kojić and his dynamic crew that have been working hard on preparing this great Congress, attending to the slightest detail.

Looking forward to seeing you in great numbers!

Claude JOSSE, President

MESSAGE OF THE SENATE

With regard to the FICB World Congress
SERBIA 2012

Dear participants of the congress,

We, the Senate of the knight's order Ordo Equestris Vini Europae, extend to you the warmest of welcomes.

After the knight's consulate Burgenland (Austria) and the Slovenian Consulate, the honour of organising the FICB World Congress has been bestowed upon the Serbian consulate of our esteemed society. For this we thank and congratulate the proconsule Dipl. Ing Aleksandar Kojić as well as the other participating members of the Knights Brotherhood.

Wine culture is the foundation that we are build our many good works upon, and with nurture we widen our exclusive circle of friends. These friendships cross national borders and pursue the interest of peace and are in accordance with the motto „Those who drink together, wage not a war with one another“.

To this we add the famous words of the baroness Bertha von Suttner, a Nobel Peace prize winning laureate - “Lay down your arms” and supplement
it with “Raise up your glasses!”

We wish your stay in Serbia to be a pleasant and joyful experience, and our warmest wishes go to those who may decide to use the FICB World Congress to join the Order of the Knights of Wine.

Regardless of state borders and geographical distances may we stay truly connected in the motto on our coat of arms:

IN HONOREM DEI et IN HONOREM VINI, as well as the message from the Senate PAX et LAETITIA SEMPER NOBISCUM.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, BROTHERS AND SISTERS - IN WINE

The Association of European wine knights St George (EVVS), the consulate of Serbia, has been honoured to organize 47. World Congress F.I.C.B. We cordially invite you to take part in the congress, in the period from 31.05.2012.until 06.06.2012. in our country, which will offer you apart form traditional hospitality, excellent dishes and wines that can be found in Serbia only.

Located in Europe, Serbia also occupies a part of western Balkan and Pannonian plain and has a climate suitable for producing various sorts of top quality wines. We prepared rich and diverse programme for you. We will do our best to make you feel relaxed, enjoy socializing, while drinking our wine and tasting our local specialities in a beautiful surrounding. You will be hosted in two towns that can be rightly called pearls of the Danube, Novi Sad and Belgrade. We will visit Palic lake, take part in the opening ceremony of the wine festival in Subotica, sail on the Danube listening to music and drinking wine and enjoy Serbian specialities served in the bohemian quarter Skadarlija in Belograd. The official part of the congress will finish with this in Belgrade and Vojvodina. For those who would like to stay a little longer we prepared an extra progamme. On the first day we will visit the historical place Topola, a place of origin of Serbian Royal family Karadjordjevic, but also known for good wines. On the hill above Topola St George church dominates where two kings were buried, Petar I and his son Aleksandar I, as well as the other members of the royal family. A visit to Royal cellar, built in 1931. which at that time represented the most modern cellar on Balkan, is also a part of the programme : www.topolaoplenac.org.rs .

On the second day we will take you to the largest viticulture area, Vršac vineyards www.vvinogradi.co.rs, where we will visit a wine cellar. You will enjoy the lunch prepared specially for you by wine lady dr.Jovanović Radmila at her estate Kapetanovo in absolutely natural environment www.dvorci.info/dvorci/kapetanovo.php

Welcome to 47. Congress F.I.C.B.

Serbia is waiting for you!

With a knightly motto IN HONOREM DEI et IN HONOREM VINI
